Richards, cashier of the Merchants and Mechanics Bank, whp, being sworn according to law, declares that he has carefully examined the books and muniments of the bank, and has compared the same with the foregoing exhibit, and that he verily believes the said exhibit or statement, with the accompanying schedules, present a true, fair, and full view of the actual condition of the bank. That he has inspected the several items of said assets or the evidence thereof, as set forth in the said exhibit for November 20, and that he has, according to the best of his judgment and ability, valued each of said items of assets at its actual cash value, so far as could be ascertained, and that in his judgment the actual assets of the bank are intrinsically worth the amount of the valuation made by him; and further, that no other dividend than those above specified was declared or made since the first Monday of November, 1885, either in cash, stock, or other valuable thing. JOHN T. RICHARDS, Cashier. Sworn and subscribed before me, 17th day of December, 1886. ARJA WILLIAMS, Notary Public. Schedule B.
